List of Unpublished Research and Publications:

Research 1-Title: “An Evaluation of the Activities of the United Nations Country Team: Bangladesh Context”(Under development for publication, Expected completion: Fall 2026).

Field of Research: This paper looks at how the United Nations Country Team (UNCT) has worked in Bangladesh between 2021 and 2024. It highlights their close collaboration with the government and local NGOs to support sustainable development, protect human rights, promote gender equality, and strengthen environmental resilience. The study also shares key accomplishments, future plans, and suggestions for making sure UNCT's efforts align better with Bangladesh's own priorities.

Research 2-Title: “Uniform Civil Code: A Comparative Analysis based on Constitutional Mandate of Bangladesh”

Field of Research: Bangladesh is a secular democracy where diverse religious communities coexist peacefully. Each community follows its own personal laws based on religious beliefs, protected by constitutional provisions. The Constitution also guarantees the right to freely practice religion under Article 41.

International Poster Presentation

I presented a research titled “Uniform Civil Code: A Comparative Analysis on the Basis of the Constitutional Mandate” at the 3rd International Poster Competition for Young Researchers 2025 selected as a silver awardee.
